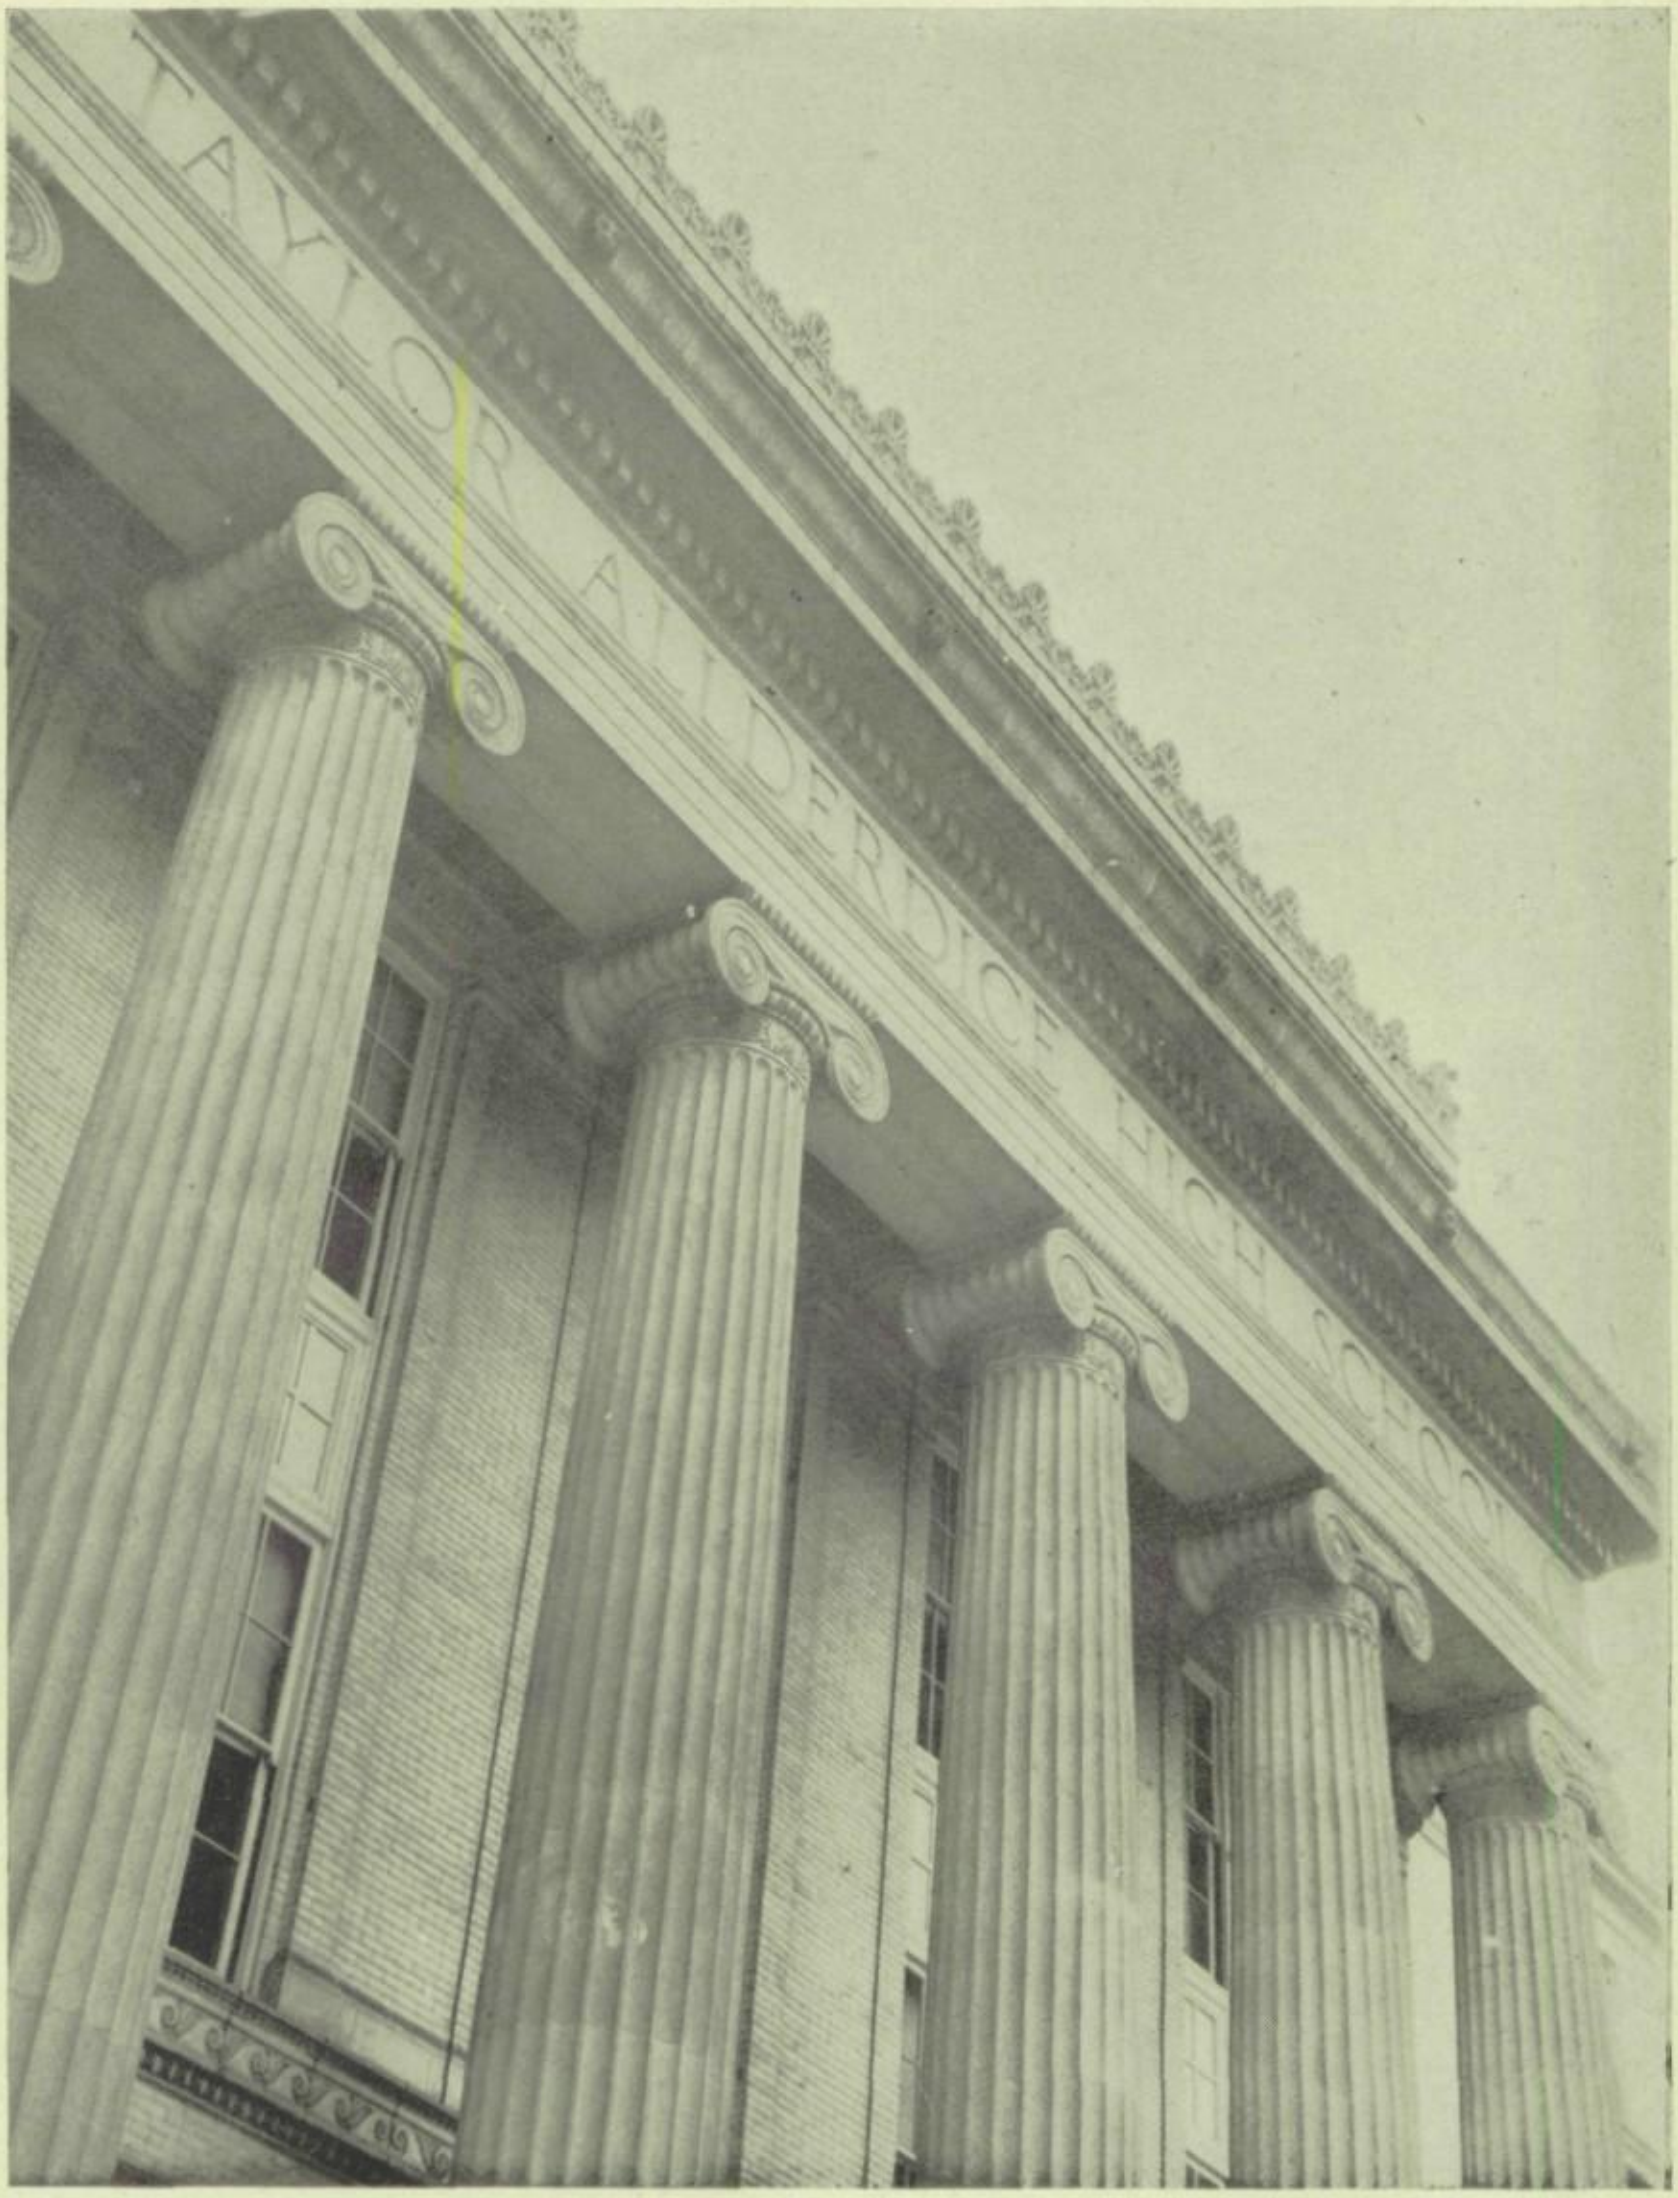
Foreword

THIS JOURNAL represents the efforts, the achievements, and the activities of members of the 12A classes of 1948 of Taylor Allderdice High School. For many graduating students, formal education is at an end; they will now take their place in the world. For others, the future contains several years of additional preparation for life, years which will be spent in college. But regardless of the diversity of our paths, as graduates we look confidently to the future. Our Alma Mater has done her job well; in reaching her age of maturity, she has made mature adults of those who have successfully concluded her courses of study.

In the unsettled atmosphere of the world of today, the freshness, the vigor, and the idealism of American youth must find an outlet. This Journal shall ever remind us that we were given the opportunity to make something of our generation. In this crucial age, we must meet the challenge. These graduates, by leading lives befitting the American Man and the American Woman, will be meeting the challenge. By making their lives satisfying to themselves while constructive to the community, they will be doing their small part in the building of a new world, a world to which these class members were introduced as students in Taylor Allderdice.



TAYLOR HALL

Dedication

THE members of the 1948 graduating classes feel an indebtedness to those persons of the maintenance staff who have helped to keep our building a safe and pleasant place in which to live and work. Mr. Dietz and his custodial staff, the elevator operators, George Carstairs and Mrs. Jones have all done their duties in an efficient yet unostentatious way.

The January and June classes are proud to dedicate this yearbook to these unsung heroes of Allderdice who have performed those hidden but important tasks which have kept our school running smoothly and which have made our lives here more pleasant and profitable.

Allderdice Comes of Age

With the new year Allderdice reached her majority—21 years of age. At the same time the world entered into a new and perhaps frightening Atomic Era. We, the graduates of 1948, are entering into a world that stands at the crossroads, as we do; the world at the crossroads of eternity—Allderdice graduates at the crossroads of life. Along one way lies security and happiness, but along the other lies destruction and pain. To choose the proper way will be comparatively easy, but to stand by our choice will be difficult.

No matter how hard the maintenance of this way may happen to be, it still must be accomplished. With our new-found maturity, we must help the world to find its own maturity. The earth must be aided to find wisdom in its Atomic Age, for the world is sorely in need of real wisdom.

The way will seem hard and hopeless at times, and we will need strength to stand by our decision. But out of necessity, we must prove loyal to the right. The future of the world and of ourselves rests in the balance of the scales of Fate. We must tip the scales in the right direction.

ALLDERDICE COMES OF AGE

When a boy attains the age
Of twenty years and one,
His career in manhood
Has literally begun.

Our school has reached its "manhood";
This year it's twenty-one.
And looking back into its past,
It's proud of things well done.

To a wonderful guy

The Greatest Industry

ONE of the largest industries in the United States today is the manufacture of scholars. The gradual growth of these board of education products has been observed, and a pictorial report published under the name "Allderdice Journal." This complicated and fascinating cycle of development is here summarized.

Design for a new student begins with a small-scale freshman. When each new allotment of raw material arrives, a group of approximately 70 designers prepares to create advanced models.

The final versions come in a variety of highly finished shapes and sizes stamped with a large white "A". During the time the scholars are moving down the conveyor belts toward commencement, "C's" are handed out profusely.

The most exciting stage in the whole process is graduation. Finished students moving along the 2nd floor annex come to a big hole in the floor. As each body gets to the edge of the hole, it is picked up by a sling, and dropped into the precisely moving stream of life. Good models must be able to enter an occupation with ease, standing up under all wear and tear.

TINTYPES

WILLIAM SIEVERS—The football players work hard as beavers,
Right in there with them is our boy Sievers.

DONALD Y. LINN—With his blazing red hair and his big blue eyes,
Donald Linn is the envy of all of the guys.

ALAN M. WALLIE—Rembrandt would certainly fall in a faint,
If he could see the way Alan Wallie can paint.

JACKSON COHEN—You can depend upon Jackson really to try;
And some day his planes—through the air will fly.

JUDITH ISHLON—Judy's voice is very sweet and clear;
Her notes fall gently upon the ear.

SONYA FAIGEN—Concert Master of Orchestra A,
Sonya Faigen can really play.

ANNETTE BROOKS—If you are interested in food and good cooks,
Why not have a talk with Annette Brooks?

WILFRED RIESBERG—Treasurer Riesberg has figures on his mind;
Come on, Wilfred—tell us what kind.

THELMA TATTON—Thelma Tatton's skill with a needle so keen,
She can whip up a dress that makes designers turn green.

JAMES LINN—We now present our friend James Linn,
When he's an accountant, he's sure to win.

LOUIS MARKS—Monkey business-man Lew Marks has fun;
He really keeps his blues on the run.

MARY LOU SOMMERS—A very agile dancer is our Mary Lou;
All intricate steps she can gracefully do.
FRANK WARD—You should see Frank Ward's flying form;
He's a big man in the green and white uniform.
SALLY OSMOND—Our fair haired Sally is a girl we admire;
In working for the journal she never does tire.
NICHOLAS ROHALY—We're sure that Nick will really go far,
With a voice like his he'll become quite a star.
SHEILA LUTSKY—An archeologist our Sheila will be;
As a Habonim member she's busy as a bee.
DOLORES NEFT—There's music in the air when Duchy is near,
The tones of her cello are so sweet to hear.
HARRY COFFEY—Selling fine furniture is Harry's desire;
He'll make lots of money and then retire.
ELAINE MARTIN—An actress fair is our Elaine;
As queen of the stage—long may she reign!
CARL GREENBERG—As for Carl Greenberg, there isn't a single fear,
For he'll surely be remembered as a mechanical engineer.
FRANK MICHENER—In automobiles Frank Michener finds fun;
He fixes and paints them till they shine in the sun.
RICHARD McKEONE—Richard McKeone likes to build model planes;
This is a job that requires skill and brains.
MARILYN LADLEY—Marilyn will be a secretary, neat and clever;
Will she shirk her duties? The answer is, "Never."
HERBERT SHAPIRO—Habonim Herb likes discussions and the Prom;
He is always so busy, he's never quite calm.
JAY SUPKOFF—Jay and his fiddle are a familiar sight;
He practices faithfully morning and night.
HARRY DUGUID—In electricity, Harry shows marked skill,
A mechanical chap with vigor and will.
ANNETTE CANTOR—At taking shorthand Annette is a whiz;
Is she smart? Is she clever? I'll say she is.
SHIRLEY WEISS—To see this girl twirl is very nice;
You've guessed her name—Shirley Weiss.
ELIZABETH YAREMKO—Our little Red Riding Hood of 265
On a secretary's salary will live and strive.
DOLORES KRUSINSKI—Small, sweet and quite petite
Our Dolores is always attractive and neat.
BURTON LEVINSON—Burton is smart; that's plain to see;
As an engineer, a sure success he'll be.
JACQUELINE ROSENTHAL—Jacqueline is gracious, kindly, and neat;
To have her as a classmate has been a real treat.

DAFFY-NITIONS

Examination: A diabolical invention made purely to frustrate seniors.
Themes: Sheets of paper covered with writing designed to influence authorities into permitting seniors to graduate.
Cafeteria: A spot where the elite meet to eat.
Homework: Any assignment for study or preparation outside the classroom copied hurriedly before school from a friend.
English Teacher's Record Book—Bound sheets of paper containing enough pencil marks to lower our grades five points.

Where will you find variety galore,
Everything from A to Z?
Some might say the corner drugstore,
Others, Room 363.

In what drugstore would you find a finer candy counter?

Better than a Queen Anne Almond Treat,
MARIANNE SILBERBERG just can't be beat.

Our Baby RUTH RIDING is always around;
When you need her most, she's easily found.

VERNAN ESKOVITZ is our sweet Bit-o-Honey,
We wouldn't give her up for any sum of money.

A Powerhouse of strength and personality,
CHUCK HESS has real individuality.

Chuckles is a delicious candy bar,
But DOTTY HENDRIX is this counter's star.

A Life Saver in any emergency,
We couldn't do without EDDIE BACHINSKY.

GERRY MARINER is sweet, just right;
We'll take her instead of an Almond Delight.

Charms is MARCIA MORGAN'S middle name,
This darling belongs in a gilded frame.

You are sure to find what you want at our gift counter.

A Silver Bracelet is always in style,
The same as ROZZI ROBBINS' friendly smile.

Eversharp but never too bold—
The one, the only IRMA FEINGOLD.

Our favorite baby doll, SALLY BAER,
Is cute, adorable, without a care.

The Gem of the class, never to be forgot,
In an emergency it's PAL KRAMER who is sought.

He delighted us all, it was a Revelation,
As an actor RON SCHWARTZ is a major sensation.

BILL BUSKO doesn't need Kreml for his hair,
He's already handsome, smart, and debonair.

The sharpest edge you could possibly hone
Would be dull in comparison to the wit of BLUESTONE.

Our perfume bar is just perfect.

Sweet and friendly and Forever Yours,
CONNIE HALPERN's the gal every one adores.

Charming, Disarming, the one we're all for,
JANET SIGAL has personality galore.

Dubarry's "Shocking" is a favorite with all,
Just like SHIRL STEINBERG, who has lots on the ball.

Our news counter has nothing but the best.

Hero of our Detective Yarns, causing crime to flee,
Is that never-tiring private eye—FRANK PETRUZZI.

Adorning the latest cover of "Glamour Magazine,"
MITZI COWEN would be a hit on any movie screen.

Appearing in every headline, making his bid for fame
Is that ever-popular fellow, MORRIS SPOKANE.

Every good book has its fair maiden in distress,
Ours is NITA PEISAKOFF, a sure candidate for success.

Author of the joke-book that has them rolling in the aisles,
JAY GEFSKY is the cause of many boisterous smiles.

What's a drugstore without its personnel?

Cheerful, efficient, singing at her work,
There's no task so difficult that LILA STEIN will shirk.

Barely heard above all the din,
The lively chatter of BETTY CHAITKIN.

Serving as our Jukebox, singing star to be,
We're sure PEG BLANCHARD'S future is no deep mystery.

Watching the temperature, operating the fan,
Is that versatile fellow, SANDY HAUSMAN.

Waiting on the tables, doing every chore,
ART CIANA helps to make this place a lively store.

ALONG THE RADIO WAVES

Elmer Antill—This "Mysterious Traveler" creates quite a pun,
And puzzles us all by leaving at one.
Stanley Barbrow—"Say It With Music" is the theme of our Stan,
This great little guy is our melody man.
Bernie Freedel—People will say "Welcome Stranger" when Bernie is in sight,
For he is always happy and never picks a fight.
Sidney Granoff—"Front Page Granoff" a printer will be,
To the door of success he holds the key.
Edgar Hausman—Ed could be "Mayor of the Town" and govern this fair city,
Instead he'll be a technician and won't ask for any pity.
Nolan Sclarsky—Keeping "Hearts in Harmony" makes our hero glad,
'Cause Nolan's the kind of boy who is never sad.
Donald Scott—If it's "Radio Television"—why, we have just the man!
'Cause if Scotty can't help you, then there's no one who can.
Frank Secoli—We call him our "Heart's Desire." Do you know why?
Whenever Tex comes around the girls begin to sigh.
Robert Shugerman—It's still the "Greatest Story," the one that Robert told,
Of how he won a football game by being brave and bold.
Edward Vangeloff—If you want to "Know the Answer" just ask our husky end,
Who has a bit of everything mixed into the perfect blend.

Louis Walden—He sings the "Song of the Stranger" and yet we know him well,
For Louie is a modest fellow and as a classmate he is swell.
Norman Williams—"Exploring the Unknown" Norm takes in his stride;
In the fields of science he will be our pride.
Doris Becker—This "Guiding Light" is head in position;
At twirling a baton, she has little competition.
Marjorie Boross—To be a "Woman in White" is Margie's ambition;
We know she'll uphold this fine old tradition.
Norma Jean DiNella—Yes, "Life Can Be Beautiful" when Norma's around,
For girls of such character are seldom found.
Rosalyn Fried—Here is the "Eternal Light" that keeps shining on and on;
She's always the first one here and always the last one gone.
Margaret Gula—A voice says, "Information Please"; it's Margie's voice you hear,
She has become an operator and speaks so very clear.
Natalie Haase—Nat has the name "Big Sister" and to us it isn't silly;
You'll always see her with Freddie except when he's in Philly.
Sella Haase—Sella is our "Queen for a Day," she's really very charming;
To find her on the stage someday wouldn't be too alarming.
Dorothy Harris—This is "Our Gal Dorothy," and she's one of the best,
As a typist or bookkeeper she could pass any test.
Shirley Koss—While walking "On the Avenue" we saw a pretty girl;
We asked her what her name was, and she said it was Shirl.
Florence Nemeth—There goes "Flo, Our Editor's Daughter," very charming and full of fun;
When there is a task to be done, she is the first to run.
Mary Ann Sharlek—Among "Stars On the Horizon" one shines above the rest,
'Tis the glowing star of Mary Ann, who as typist will be best.
Iris Vertman—To be with Iris is "Sum Fun," a finer girl cannot be found,
Always trying to help everyone; for success she is bound.
Ruth Weinstein—Here's to our "Career Girl Ruth" we know that she'll go far;
With her winning personality we're sure she'll be a star.
Syritta Weinstein—"Syritta Faces Life" with Business School after graduation,
We all wish her success at trying to further her education.
Allen Silverman—"In My Opinion" Al is one swell guy,
If there is work to be done he'll never pass it by.

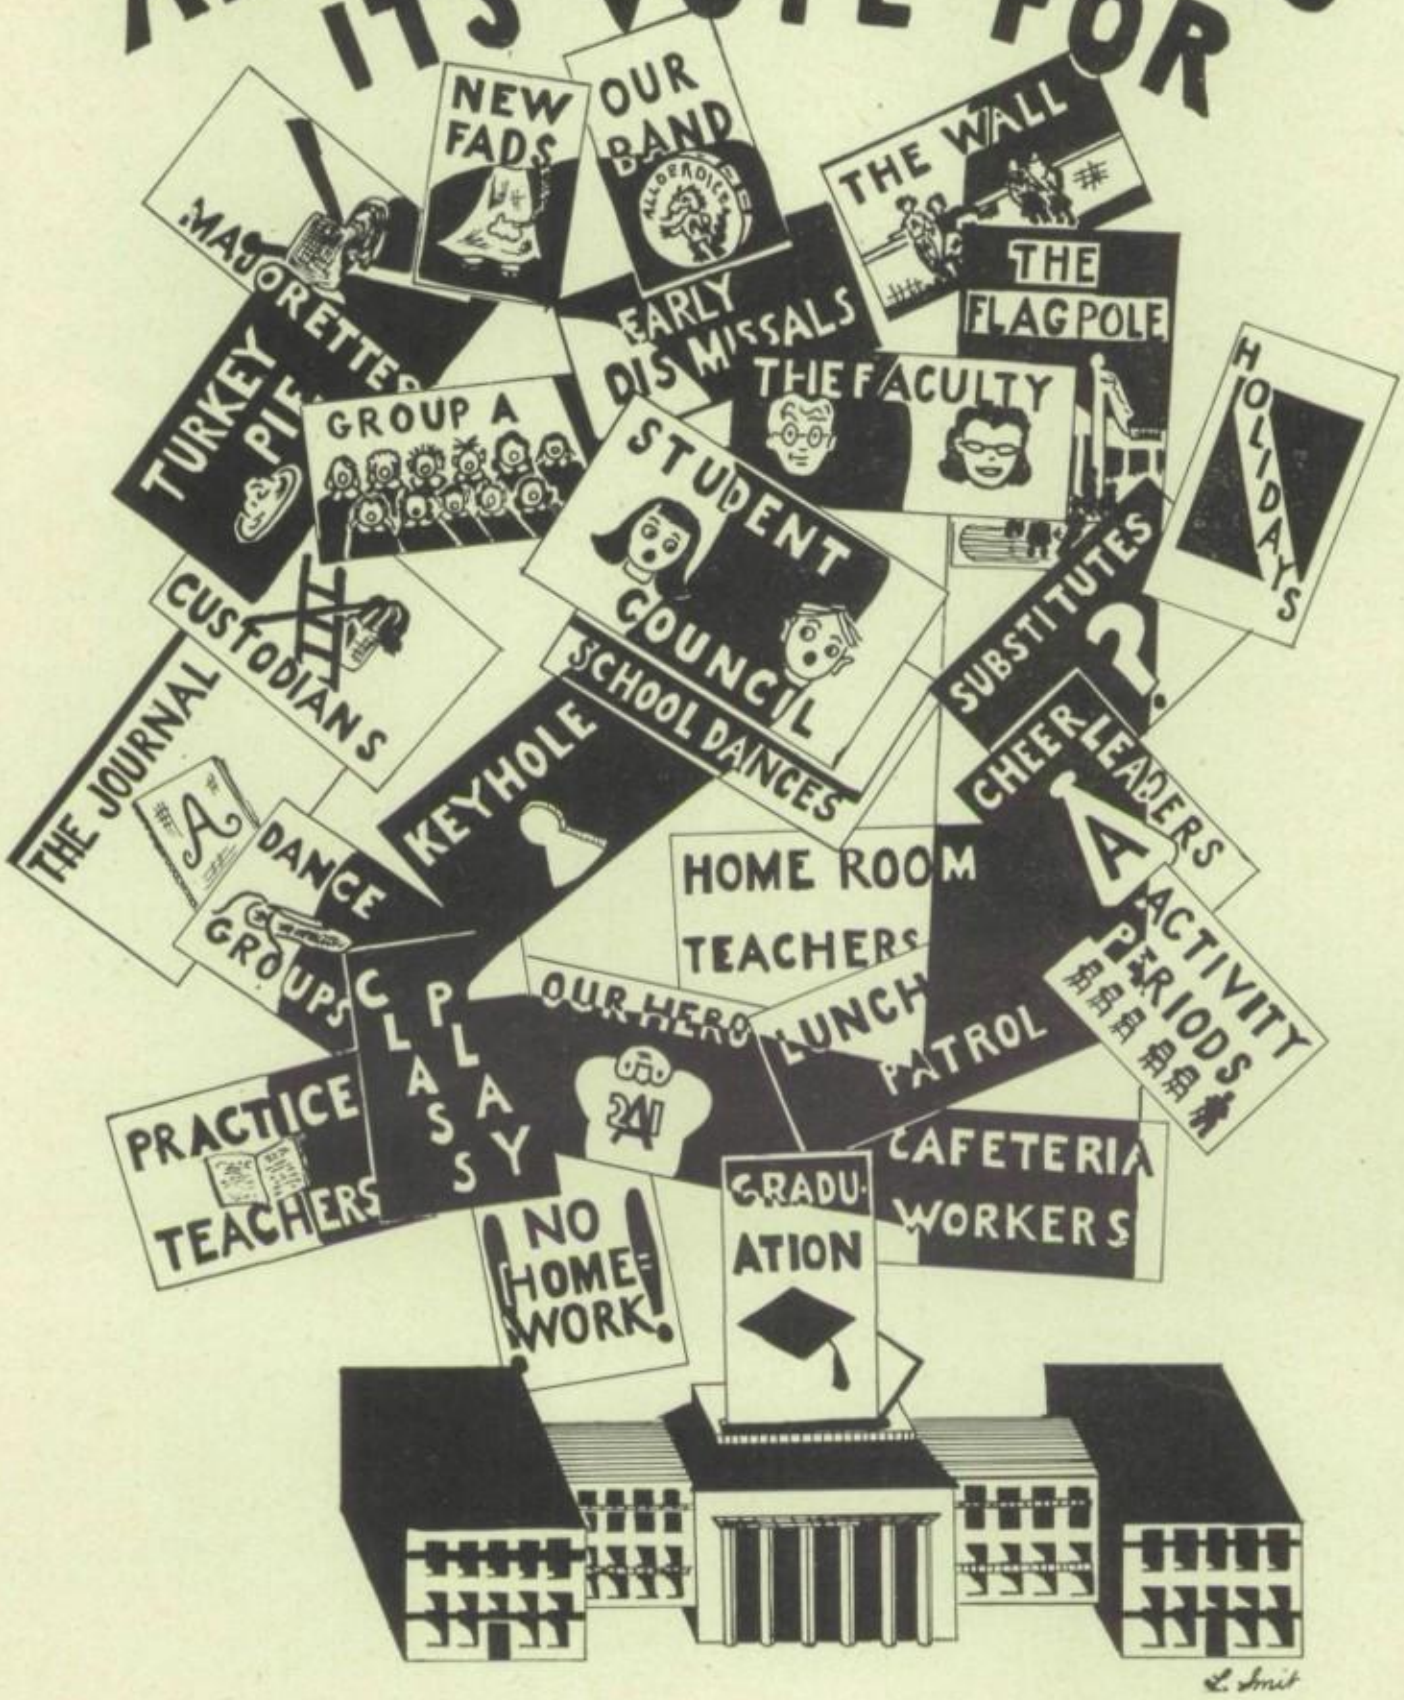
ALLDERDICE CASTS ITS VOTE FOR



This the Year

THIS year is one that will go down in history. To mention a few happenings—the English lost India, Henry Wallace started a third party, and the Big Four succeeded in reaching complete misunderstanding.

In Allderdice the student body developed indigestion from trying to eat lunch to rhumba tempo coming from the juke-box. To get over their sickness they dashed out to the wall to discuss the Senior Prom at the Schenley Ballroom with Brad Hunt's orchestra, and succeeded at one time in developing the record smoke screen of 72% density. Ah yes, this year thinking Allderdicians were talking about taxes, labor problems, and Dear Ruth. Musically-minded pupils formed in trios to sing Bongo, Bongo, Bongo, and in drips to sing Bloop-Bleep. For its twenty-first birthday, our Alma Mater got a face lifting, and the auditorium got a new curtain. Yes it's true. This is the year that will be remembered not only in the history of the world, but even in the history of Taylor Allderdice.

How To Produce A Yearbook

THE first thing to do when you wish to publish a yearbook is to choose a staff. This task is of utmost importance and should be undertaken with great care. A member of the staff must be a person of definitely superior mentality; preferably, one who has mastered the mechanics of writing. He should be efficient; that is, he should know that B comes after A in a filing system, and above all he should put it there. Other desirable qualities are wit and the ability to arouse sympathy. The latter is especially important, since the only way to sell yearbooks is to get the student body to feel sorry for the staff. As a final word of warning on selecting a staff, disregard the advice of others; they do not know a thing about it.

Now that you have chosen a staff and handcuffed them to the nearest fireplug, you must choose a sponsor. A sponsor must be a backlashing, beetle-browed, two-fisted dictator of a person. Good sponsors are usually of the type who beat little children and bark at stray dogs. It will probably be very difficult to find someone to fill this position, because, as the sponsor must fight the rest of the faculty, the engraver, the printer, the student body and the staff, she is liable to end up a wandering, friendless person who mumbles to herself.

Having obtained a sponsor and a staff, the difficult part is now over. Clear sailing lies ahead. There remain 10 weeks till publication date. Preparing the book is almost no trouble at all; you merely have to choose a theme, plan the layouts for 184 pages, fit the printing to the available space, see that 400 pictures are taken, choose paper and a cover, get the art work done, write about 400 writeups, turn out several thousand words of features, solicit for 1500 subscriptions, placate students and irate faculty members, haggle with the photographer, bargain with the printer, barter with the engraver and sell ads to people who don't really want to buy ads.

The book now comes off the press. If it is only a few weeks late, consider yourself fortunate. There may be a few errors, right pages in wrong places, people left out, and the principal's picture upside down, but don't be upset. You have a yearbook and that's what counts. All that remains, is to resolve: Next year it will be different . . . but not too different.

SUPERLATIVES!

There are so many superlative people in the June graduating class that it would be difficult for any one person to choose the most handsome boy, the most beautiful girl, or the person with the nicest personality and so on. Because of this, the Journal Staff decided to take a vote in the Senior Class to determine the most superlative "Superlatives". Here are the results:

	Girls	Boys
Nicest Personality	Bernice Gordon	Alan Goldberg
Brainiest	Joan Sherman	Edwin Azen
Most Popular	Dorothy Aronson	Farrell Rubenstein
Nicest-Looking	Kathleen Schlemmer	Charles Ford
Nicest Disposition	Ruth Brown	Robert Selker
Sharpest Dresser	Martha Frain	Robert Gould
Most Sincere	Ralle Kamens	Roy Lockhart
Best Character	Jeannine Simmons	Wilbur Blitz
Most Humorous	Barbara Schwartz	Carl Citron
Most Friendly	Rhea Molever	Donald Schwartz

A DAY AT T.A.H.S.

It starts between 8 and 8:30 each day;
Odd shapes and odd forms are seen passing this way;
Feet pattering at an irregular pace,
Voices saying hello to each smiling face.
The 2nd floor annex is THE place for this
Where a handsome young male says "hello" to a miss,
While at the wall is a chattering bunch,
A favorite spot both now and at lunch.

But sooner or later the morning must pass,
Eager faces go in but then droop during class;
Papers discarded with indifferent care,
For to make a high grade would really be rare.
At last rings the lunch bell with a meaningful sound;
Once more the pupils are gathered around;
They eat to the music of Sinatra and Lee,
Or else to Vaughn, Kyser, or Tex Beneke.

By this time, the afternoon hookers have started;
The good boys and girls from these cheaters have parted;
But they'll meet at the flag pole right after school,
And find more to add to the tongue-waggers' fuel.
Home at last amid books piled sky high
They work until twelve and then heave a sigh;
Now the health teachers say everyday get fresh air,
But the homework from teachers, can we really dare?

Still we'll always remember the fun that we've had,
Our clubs and our dances and we will be glad;
The kids we have met for the friendships that last,
Though the school and the tests and the rest are all past;
The teachers who helped us to learn more than we knew,
To help our plans for the future come true.
Upon leaving I'm sure we'll all leave our THANKS,
And GOD BLESS all the kids who will pass through our ranks.

Room 263

Teacher—Mrs. Elizabeth W. Porter

President ..... Albert Daquilante
Vice President ..... Harvey Horvitz
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Beverlee Schwartz
Foreword Representative ..... Luigina Esposito
Student Council Representative ..... Evelyn Kantor

Charles Burkhart's sometimes serious, carefree or gay;
He's a likeable chap to meet any day.

Kalman Cohen has a brilliant mind;
Another like his would be hard to find.

Charlotte Cooper is little; she's dainty and sweet,
From the crown of her head to the soles of her feet.

Robert Dailey is a good friend through and through;
He is ever gay and cheerful, too.

Albert's friends are many; his enemies none;
Daquilante's the boy that gets things done.

Our Barbara Edwards is full of fun;
She has a smile for everyone.

Smart Fleischer gowns by our Nancy we see
On Hollywood stars who pay quite a fee.

He never was known his duty to shirk;
Careful and able is Bill Elliott in all his work.

Wherever you go you find this lad;
Clair Formichella makes fun where there's fun to be had.

We have all heard of the Ballet Russe,
The featured ballerina is Hyla Fuss.

Where jokes and jolly times abound,
It's there that Lou Gaertner is usually found.

That glamorous brunette whom we see on the stage
Is Geraldine Gerber, the belle of the age.

Alan Goldberg has won the Academy Award;
He's the "man of the year," by his public adored.

We hear a laugh, a jolly cry,
Then we know that Gerry Goldstein is nearby.

A new comedian who's funny and witty,
Herbert Gordon now owns the key to our city.

There's simply nothing that he can't do;
Irving Greenberg's a friend, sincere and true.

Marion Hibbard, our singing figure skater,
Will be starred with the Ice Follies a little later.

Harvey Horvitz makes friends and keeps them, too;
A thing that all of us can't do.

Marvin Jacobson snaps pictures; he's good we'll admit;
Wherever he goes, he makes a big hit.

Frank Kaiser has a pleasant smile,
Which is in evidence all the while.

To describe Evelyn Kantor with just one word
Would seem to us a task quite absurd.

She's a Power's model as smart as they come;
Jackie Miller's earned the laurels she's won.

Marnie Phifer's a trouper, the stage is her choice;
There's one thing about her—she has the voice.

Cynthia Powell has a gift of endless chatter;
Her words, however, sunshine scatter.

Marian Rosenbloom is one who makes the fun.
And on her we depend to get things done.

She sews a fine seam, does Beverlee Schwartz;
She's featured in the latest fashion reports.

Guest star with the symphony in Carnegie Hall,
Is Sally Shapiro—she tops them all.

Annabelle Slome is quiet and reserved;
Good fortune to her we know is deserved.

Rosalie Steinberg is pretty: a lovable maid;
Our memory of her will never fade.

Everyone knows Betty Slocum, I'll bet:
Someday she'll be heard from the stage of the Met.

Pleasant, active, brilliant and kind,
Myron Swartz is the boy with an able mind.

Dorothy Trammell, our versatile artist, you see;
Is the girl who hails from Room 263.

Luigina Esposito's disposition is sweet,
She's a very fine girl and just can't be beat.

FRONT ENTRANCE

Room 272

Teacher—Mr. Charles T. Roller

President ..... Robert Selker
Vice President ..... Thomas Risacher
Secretary ..... Harold Silverman
Treasurer ..... Lawrence D. Greenberg
Foreword Representative ..... Joan Sherman
Student Council Representative ..... Eleanor Doniger

"Jane Arden" is an ambitious young miss,
When singing, Rose reminds us of this.—Rose Pasach

Janet Feigenbaum—Janet's smile makes her head of the class;
Even "Fritzie Ritz" can not compete with this lass.

"Becky Groggins" is intelligent and sweet,
Joan has the brains and her looks are a treat.—Joan Sherman

Maxine Reidbord—Automatically one looks in "Minnie Ha-Cha's" direction.
But what about Maxine's bangs and complexion?

Gentility reigns with little Arlyne,
Like "Too, Too Devine" she's a young man's dream.—Arlyne Yarchever

Mary Foner—There is simply nothing "Wonder Woman" can't do;
The versatility of Mary will stand out too.

Eleanor Stoeher who is sweet and serene,
Portrays as does "Candy," the typical teen.—Eleanor Stoeher

Shirley Slone—"Maggie" has wondrous pep and vitality,
But Shirley is our choice of "The Personality."

"Tillie the Toiler" is simple and neat;
Shirley Sporman qualifies for this feat.—Shirley Sporman

Kitty Brown—"Lois Lane" has a reporter's attire,
Kitty wears the robes of our A Cappella Choir.

Each room has a Marilyn, we hope for them,
For just like "Little Iodine," she's quite a gem.—Marilyn Cohen

Carole Sternberg—The figure of "Daisy Mae" is a dream;
Take Carole for she fits this, it's easily seen.

Fay Steinberg is pretty, a charming young lass,
Like "Brenda Starr," the fellas come running, en masse.—Fay Steinberg

Janice Smith—Janice Smith is as sweet as she seems,
Like "Annie Rooney" she's the girl of our dreams.
"Blondie" in her family keeps the reigns in her hands;
Shirley Weinert will do well with whatever she plans.—Shirley Weinert

Eleanor Doniger—Eleanor's the twirling demon with lots of will,
Like "Superwoman" she has agility and skill.
Tommy's full of pep and joy,
Like "Jack Armstrong," an All-American boy.—Thomas Risacher

James Rosen—Jimmy's really the toast of the school,
Like "Captain Easy," he's not easy to fool.
Dinkle's a whiz on the athletic field,
Like "Flash Gordon" he's never known to yield.—Harold Silverman

Lawrence Greenberg—Larry's great on the 88 keys,
Like "Fearless Fosdick," he's always sure to please.
Harvey's really an actor supreme,
Like "Smilin' Jack," he's peaches and cream.—Harvey Waldholtz

Robert Selker—Bobby's certainly got what it takes,
Like "Li'l Abner," he'll get all the breaks.
Normie's always up in the air,
Like "Hollywood Johnnie," he's got talent to spare.—Norman Eisenstat

Bert Skirboll—Bert is surprisingly full of joys,
Like "Steve Roper," he's one of the boys.
Tom is definitely man-of-the-year,
Like "Jungle Jim," he lives in high gear.—Thomas Moore

George Wilson—George is wonderfully lively and quick,
Like the well-known "Tracy," whose first name is Dick.
Davey's got a lot on the ball,
Like our friend the "Lone Ranger," he's handsome and tall.—David Israel

David Davis—David's really a girl's ideal,
Like "Major Hoople," he's got a good spiel.
Will is comparable to Harry James,
Like the famous "Red Ryder," he's sweet on the dames.—William Pervin

Merle Wolfson—Merle is one great football man,
Like "Sonny Brawnski," he's no also-ran.
Eddie's got a terrific left hook,
Like "Joe Palooka," he's in everyone's book.—Edward Lazo

Herbert Rubinfield—Herby's got wonderful curly, blond hair,
Like "Knobby Walsh," he doesn't have a care.
Donnie is a camera hound,
Like "Flash-Bulb Casey," his theories are sound.—Donald Labovitz

By reading the names that are underlined.
To our teacher, Miss Warnock, our thanks we will give,
We'll never forget her as long as we live.

A good-natured fellow is Prof. Bill Banks,
For being in our class we offer our thanks.

Tom Beeler with his southern drawl,
Will cause many a lucky girl to fall.

Of Barbara Bloomfield, everyone knows,
That she brings laughter wherever she goes.

Wherever there is fun and cheer,
You're sure to see Sara Clevenger.

Crilley's the last name, the first name's Lew,
A better fellow, we don't know. Do you?

D'Alessandro is a mighty long name,
But with it, Alfred, will make his fame.

Alan Gerson, Profundo Superb,
His thoughts from music will never swerve.

Lydia Goodman, good-looking and clever,
We know her friendships will never sever.

Be happy-go-lucky, never frown,
Is Flo Harris' message to the town.

Mary Hull's ready laugh and pleasant smile,
Will win her friends and merits by the mile.

To Norma (Eleanor Powell) Keys, we lend this name,
Her dancing feet will bring her fame.

Quite deserved honor and a coveted position,
Will reward Erma Kovacs' friendly disposition.

Oh, to be but stranded on a lonely raft,
With that black, wavy-haired Karl Kraft.

We all have traits that suit us to a "T",
But none like Edith Krasnow's personality.

Fine musicians are always in the need,
So Arlene Levinson will surely succeed.

Smiling Pete Lopez, full of sport and fun,
Those girls of his will surely keep him on the run.

Without a care, without a peeve,
That's Mathew, and his first name's Steve.

A basketball star is our Joe Nagy,
Quick and nimble and always cagy.

There's a girl in our class named Hazel O'Shell,
Loyal and faithful and true as a bell.

A girl who is lots of fun to know,
Is our very own, Irene Perlow.

To be as smart as Audrey Recht,
Is the goal which we all select.

Sammy Rosen, always on the go,
He'll never be forgotten as one swell Joe.

Every class has some one to get rid of Woe,
So we give that laurel to Ruth Scoratow.

Quick with a smile, and full of fun,
Is Emma Sill; yes, she's the one.

You don't need magic or even radar,
To see a swell fellow in Harold Smolar.

One of the nicest girls in our class,
Is Marjorie Taylor, a quiet lass.

A swell girl whom we're glad we've met,
Is Anna Thomas, whom we won't forget.

Though new to the class, she fell into line;
Elvira Unger soon proved herself fine.

The president of our class, Robert Verbin,
On his many duties, is always servin'.

With her brown hair and flashing eyes,
Rita Watts should win a prize.

Christine Williams with her subdued little voice,
Has made her the room's quietest by unanimous choice.

Shirley Wolfson, the sprite of our room,
Will always be able to banish Old Gloom.

We now say farewell to Room 356;
We've had a good time and we've taken our licks;
Yes, now a good-bye to the pride of them all,
Third floor annex, halfway down the hall.

The Library

The Taylor Allderdice High School library is one of the finest equipped libraries in the city. It is well-stocked with books, both factual and fictitious; it is beautifully decorated; it is an ideal room for reading.

THOMAS ARCHIBALD: We shall always remember him for his lyric tenor and good looks.

ALEX BANDERINKO: Our genial vice president is very effective with his quiet manner and his friendly smile.

RHODA MAE BAYER: This tall, slender lass with a pleasing disposition will certainly reach her goal.

MATTHEW BROWN: Mack is a fellow agreeable to know. He likes baseball, dancing and Duke Ellington.

MYRNA BROWN: We all wonder what this girl with her sincere smile and velvet eyes likes in addition to sports.

JEAN CLARK: Likes softball and dancing; and when she is not dreaming about Ronald Reagan. she spends her time sewing.

KATHERINE CLARK: Studious and friendly, her graceful appearance and pretty blue eyes are a great asset to Modern Dance.

PAT FOLEY: Has a most serious, sedate attitude when walking into class, although he's the most jovial fellow outside.

EUGENE GELLER: The good natured clown of 372, who is also an athlete, is liked by everyone.

JOHN GIGLIOTTI: His profound love for horses, his modesty and ambition, make John an interesting fellow.

ARTHUR GRAHAM: This tall, blond lover of sports will someday be acclaimed as a draftsman.

DOLORES DeGREGORIO: When not dancing to Brad Hunt's orchestra, she may be found at the Hot Puppy Shop or writing letters.

ANN BAKAYSZA: Has all the qualities to make an accomplished nurse—sympathy, understanding, quietness, efficiency, and good looks.

JULIA HOLECZY: A superb athlete, full of achievement, vitality and sparkling wit.

JACK HOWE: Blond, with blue eyes which the girls notice, a mixture of the right proportions—this is not always found.

FRANCIS LANNON: A fine pal, good-natured and always jolly—Gus will always glide through life.

SHIRLEY LIEBER: Conscientious and industrious—her beauty and her friendly ways are great assets.

FRANCIS MIKULA: Frank, ambitious, courageous, this gentleman will never be behind the eightball.

WILMA MILLS: Pleasant disposition, her intelligence and looks, form a combination impossible to overlook.

LYNN H. NOAH: Our blond and sophisticated philosopher likes cars, troubles and girls, and all three like him.

LOIS REDMAN: Genial, consistent, Lois is always ready to help everyone and to promote worthwhile things.

RENEE KANN: Sparkling green eyes and flaming red hair, this sweet and lovely lass will always cut a pretty figure.

JULIA SABO: With her looks, leadership and personality, Julia has made a perfect president and set a standard worthy to attain.

JOHN SCOTT: His geniality, his mellow voice, and his skill on the trumpet form a winning combination to start out in life.

JOANNE SEILER: Cheerful, witty, alert, Joan is on her toes all of the time.

BARBARA SCHWARTZ: Her attractive figure and satirical wit contribute to her desired presence in every crowd.

DESSIE SIDBERRY: One of our nicest girls, quiet and reserved, she likes jewelry, Gregory Peck and sports.

JEANNINE SIMMONS: This cute girl with an easy disposition takes a tremendous interest in athletics.

GERALDINE SMITH: We could never find a finer athlete, a better sport, or anyone else with so much grace and so lovely a voice.

HAROLD SOLENDAY: Strong, yet not so quiet—he knows what's going on and his alert qualities make him welcome any time.

STANLEY SULTANOV: Very cooperative, brainy—this chatterbox will always come out on top.

JUDITH CERILLI: A very peppy young lady, with a lot of initiative, excellent in swimming.

VIVIAN GRIFFIN: Our Helen of Troy—her beauty and personality are the desirable qualities which attract her admirers.

AUDREY WILLSON: An active, intelligent young woman who will always be a colorful asset to every phase of society.

STANLEY SWINKLE: Our friendly, red-haired Irishman will always receive a hearty welcome wherever he goes.

THOMAS GRETZINGER: Girls, if physics and chemistry are present, you do not have much of a chance with this handsome "Brain."

MARGARET DOELFEL: Quiet and sweet, intelligent and serious, Margaret is a most agreeable companion.

BARBARA WOLFSON: Through her intelligence, leadership, and great musical talent she has accomplished results for her class and her school.

Singing is right up DORIS SCAVARIEL'S line
And in the future, in this she'll be fine.

ANN MARIE VERRONE'S motto: "Silence is golden,"
Seems in her case to be a good omen.

Did you ever see MARJORIE DUSHAW when she wasn't busy?
That's where she got her nickname—"Whizzy."

ANNA FAZEKAS' jokes are ever a delight;
She is always cheery, pleasant, and bright.

Brightness in our room would we lack
Without a smile from BETTY REHAK.

ANITA GREENBERG, better known as "Smiling Gus"
Is forever making a fuss.

JULIA CHEREVKA'S complexion and brown eyes—
That's where her real beauty lies.

Our surroundings would be darker
Without our radiant JANET PARKER.

Work in the Service Club would be stalled
Without the help of LOUISE GREENWALD.

HELEN ROZENSKY, our dark-haired lassie,
Is jolly, sweet and truly quite classy.

A vivacious blonde from 353,
That's ROXIE FRALEY, and one you should see!

So full of life and never in gloom—
That's ELLA ROSENSHINE to complete our room.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 429 in the year nineteen hundred and forty-eight, being in full possession of our faculties (or so we're led to believe) do hereby give and bequeath the following items and attributes to our former fellow inmates:

Maxine Benjamin leaves her white sweater
To any girl who can wear it better.

Shirley Blumenthal, Miss Personality Plus,
Leaves every trait we consider "a must."

Audrey Bloom leaves her voice,
For some pupil of Emma's choice.

Twin desks are left by Ruth and Suzanne,
To get there each morning the Brown girls ran;
The teacher and pupils could hardly wait
To see if the twins would again be late.

Francee Calfo leaves her skates
To another who at this sport rates.

Cute and clever Patti Castle—need we enter detail—
Has left her great ability in the field of fashion retail.

Arlene Cohen, an artist of note,
Will some day receive some great master's vote.

Rosemarie Colarossi gives her hair so black;
The one who gets this, for beauty will never lack.

Friendly Joan Craig, so graceful and tall,
Is ready to help you whenever you call.

Dolores Doyle leaves her needle and thread,
She's a girl about whom much can be said.

Shirley Hartstein will leave her sunny disposition;
To win real friends will be her gifted mission.

Whoever gets the cook book of Pattie Hendrix
Will never find herself in a kitchen—fix.

The lovely blue eyes of Joyce McVeigh
Are left to some girl with a winning way.

Rhea Molever leaves her cartoonist pen
That won her fame again and again.

Joan Morris gives up her place at the wall,
To another who will come next fall.

Jean O'Connell leaves her charming manner
For which any one would wave a banner.

Diana Schmertz will give her sparkling eyes,
And all those traits that men idolize.

Carol Weiss carries the banner,
As 429's most able planner.

And there's Dave Arnold, our athletic star,
Who has made his name known here and far.

Richard Balukin, his economics book donates
To another of his ambitious schoolmates.

The gift of our hero John Brashear
Is his football suit and other gear.

Carl Citron leaves a bronze-lettered plaque,
With inscriptions of "know how" to those who lack.

John Dragan bequeaths basketball might,
To a player who equals him in height.

Marvin Eskin bestows his friendly way,
On every young man desiring to be gay.

Saul Green leaves his scientific brain,
So those coming on may also gain fame.

Jerry Iskovitz, an all round guy,
Leaves to posterity what money can't buy.

From Melvin Kouch a lock of hair,
It's beauty will the girls ensnare.

Bequeathed by Roy Lockhart—our senior class president,
The charm and the friendliness which is so very evident.

Farrell Rubenstein will leave his popularity,
And with it goes his keen jocularity.

Elliott Saltzburg bequeaths his special charm;
Who receives this can come to no harm.

Howard Spector leaves his perpetual "A"
For another student, who is on the way.

Witty gestures are left by Gilbert Weil,
To cause the undergrads to smile.

Eddy Whitehouse leaves his cheerful wit,
To the fellow who wants to make a hit.

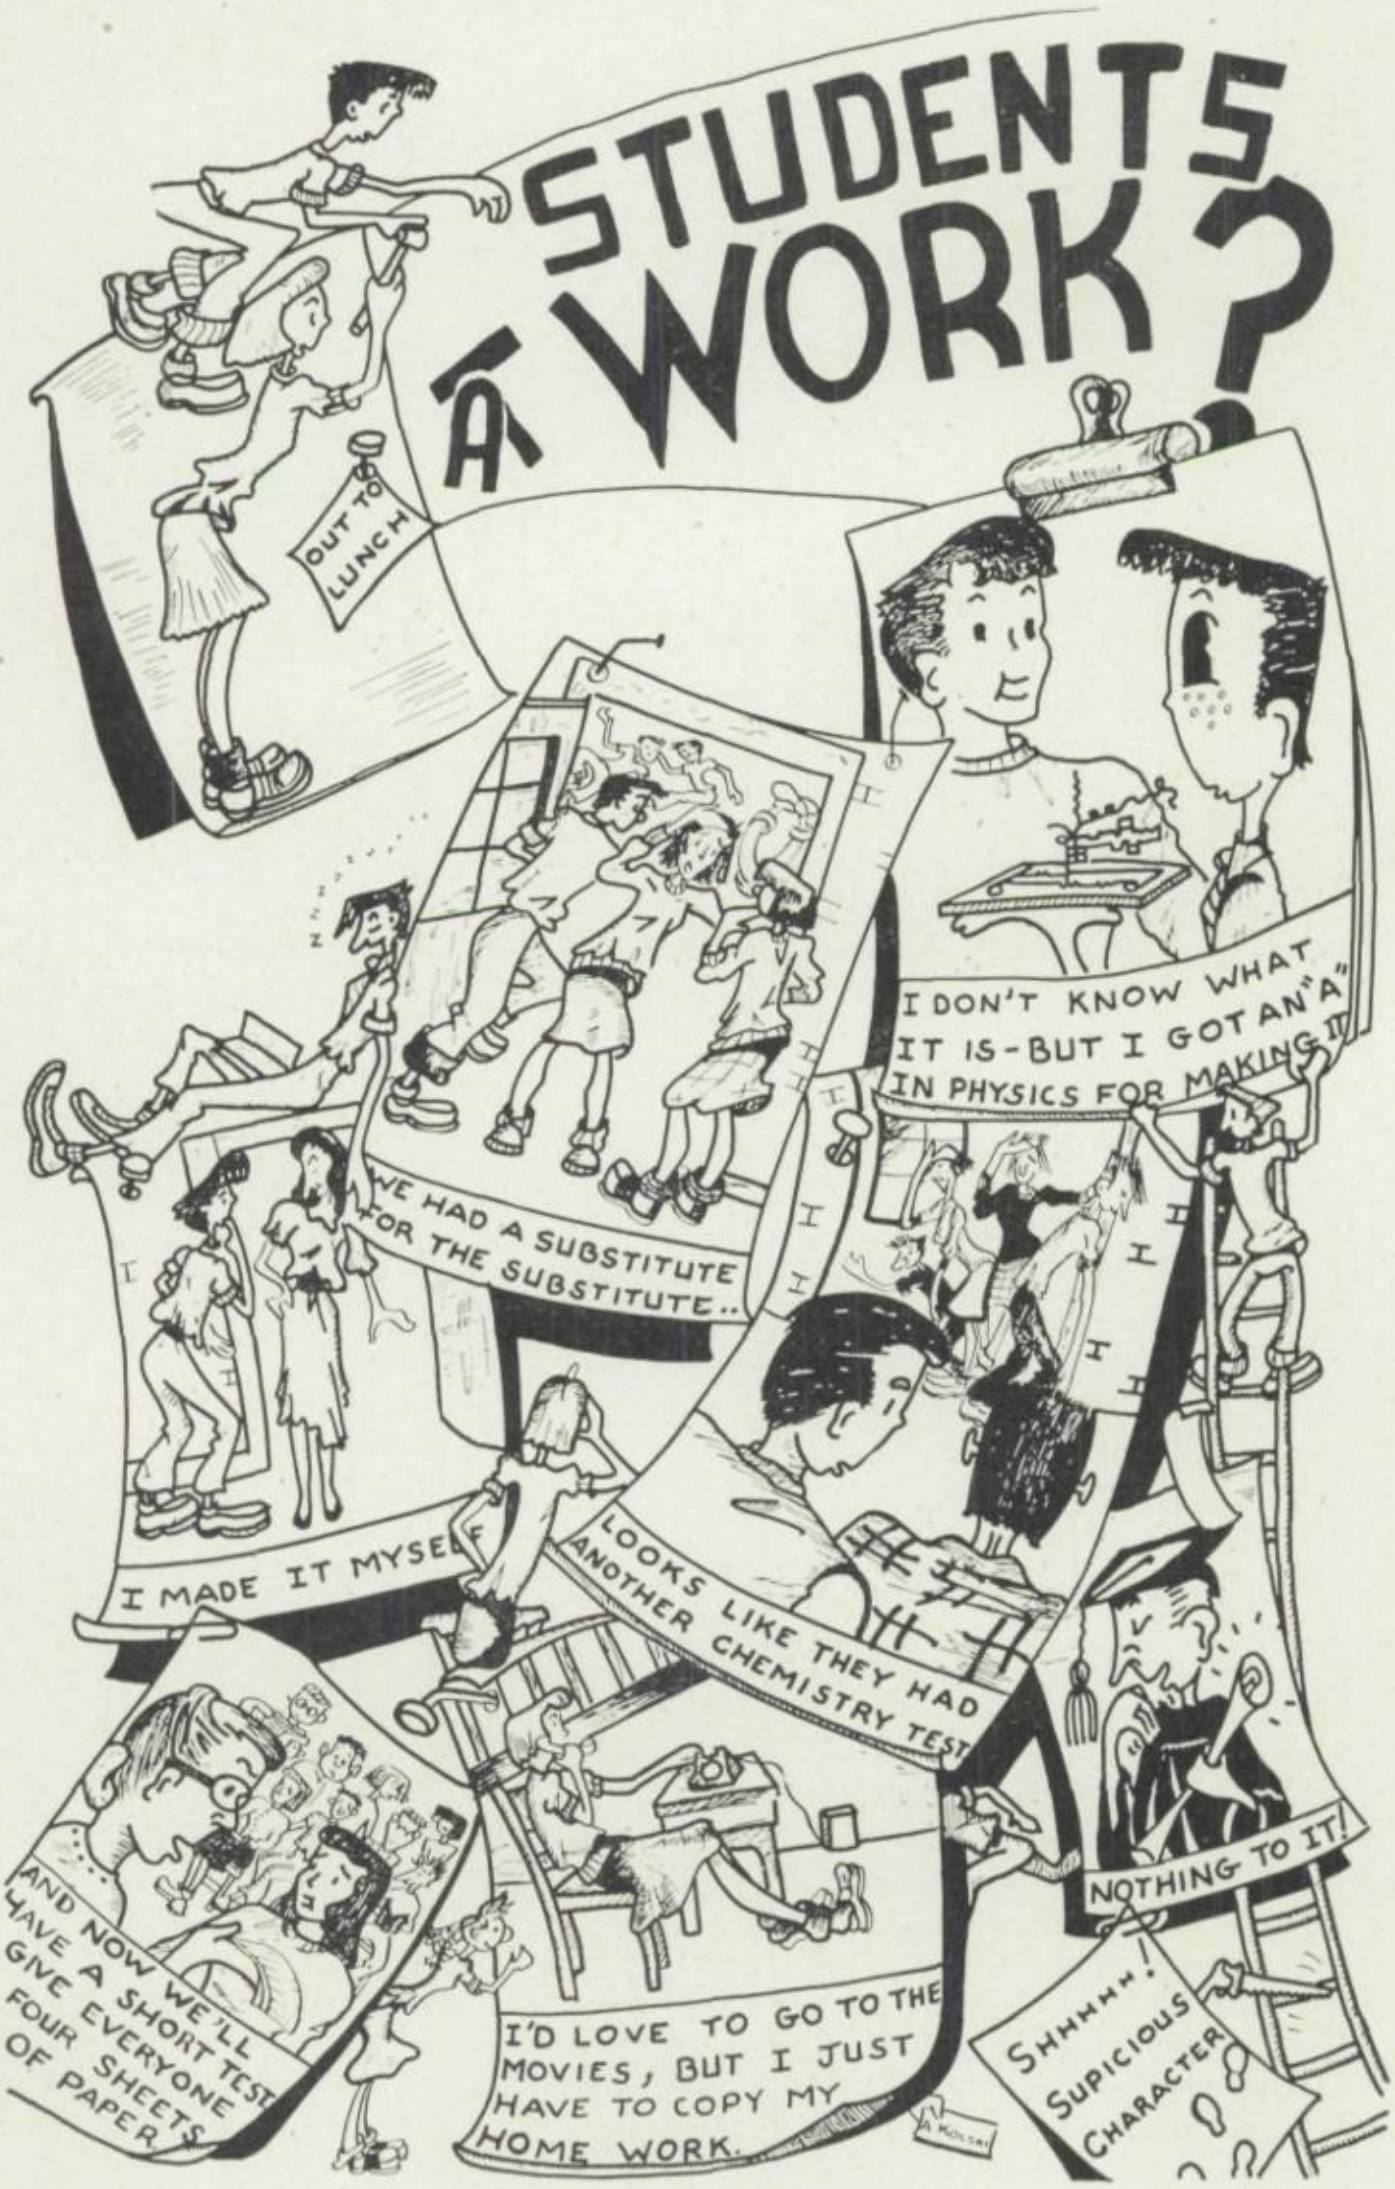
JUSTICE TRIUMPHS

If we were tried
In a court of law
For all the things
That "no one saw",
And all the pranks
We'd ever committed;
And practical jokes
That we never admitted
Were suddenly and quite
Abruptly unveiled,
We'd spend the rest
Of our lives well-jailed!



STUDENTS AT WORK?
OUT TO LUNCH
I DON'T KNOW WHAT IT IS - BUT I GOT AN "A" IN PHYSICS FOR MAKING IT
WE HAD A SUBSTITUTE FOR THE SUBSTITUTE..
I MADE IT MYSELF
LOOKS LIKE THEY HAD ANOTHER CHEMISTRY TEST
NOTHING TO IT!
AND NOW WE'LL HAVE A SHORT TEST GIVE EVERYONE FOUR SHEETS OF PAPER
I'D LOVE TO GO TO THE MOVIES, BUT I JUST HAVE TO COPY MY HOME WORK.
SHHHHH! SUPICIOUS CHARACTER

Presented by Room 452
Is this hit parade we bring to you;
Each song is quite representative
Of the way the different students live.
Just tune your ears, be right on key;
Here are the kids with personality.

Handsome, intelligent, and an all-round swell guy is "My Hero," EDWIN AZEN.

"Sonny Boy" is WILBUR BLITZ, who is always spreading rays of joy.

Someone as charming and sincere as IRENE CHASS is the "Dream Girl" of every fellow.

"Take Me Out to the Ball Game" is HERBERT CHESTER'S favorite theme. for he's always in there pitching.

Carefree RICHARD DAVIDSON'S favorite tune is "Don't Fence Me In."

Whoever wrote the song "A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody," must have had ROSALYN EISNER in mind.

LEISL ELLENBOGEN is everyone's friend; she truly is "My Desire."

"Because" you are so dependable, JULES FELDMAN, we will always remember your efficient participation in all school activities.

The only way to describe RICHARD GINSBURG is to say that he is "Fine and Dandy."

"Dark Eyes," an engaging smile, and a radiant personality—all add up to SEENA GOLDMAN.

"How Many Hearts Have You Broken," all the girls cry when handsome ROBERT GOULD walks by.

"As Long As I Live," I'll never forget the scientific brain, IRA GROFF.

Let's drink a toast to RICHARD HARRISON, for "He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

"You'll Never Know" how much we will miss the pleasure of being with dashing HERBERT HELLER.

"The Girl That I Marry" will have to be sweet and kind as SEIMA HORVITZ.

"Night and Day" you can always depend upon RALLE ANN KAMENS to extend a helping hand.

"Blue Skies" are smiling at me when I'm with quiet and friendly HARVEY KLEIN.

"The Man I Love" is SANFORD KLEIN, because he is so nice and fine.

When our Head Majorette, JOAN KRAMER, struts by, it's time to "Strike Up the Band."

"You're Lovely to Look At," MARILYN LEVY, and fun to be with, too.

"Too Marvelous for Words" is HARVEY MANN, the Casanova of the class.

Nowhere will you find a more dependable and true friend than "My Buddy," MALVERN PODOLSKY.

Sweet as "Candy" and twice as nice, is MARILYN SCHACTER.

To happy-go-lucky IVAN SEGAL we say, "You Are My Sunshine."

And to slightly mischievous but always gay SUE SIEBERT, we cry "Lady Be Good."

"A Girl That I Remember" as outstanding in the class is clever and efficient MITZI SHAPIRO.

MURRAY SHERMAN is "The Vagabond King"; we know that he will travel far.

PHYLLIS SOLOMON'S "Personality" is as charming as her pleasing manner.

"You Walk By" MARVIN SPOKANE and all the girls sigh.

"Dance, Ballerina" to ELAINE TEIFIELD we cry; her acting is also something to be shouted about.

There are "Smiles" that make us happy; there are "Smiles" that make us sad, but the "Smiles" of PATSY VEXLER are the ones that we like best.

WE CONFESS

We confess . . . We're guilty of
Hooking classes,
Forging passes,
Chewing gum,
Playing dumb,
Teasing Freshies,
Coaxing for C's,
Sneaking smokes,
Cracking jokes,
Coming in late,
Thinking we rate,
We confess . . . We're guilty.
And before they send us all away,
We have one last thing to say,
"If they gave us another chance,
We'd pull the same old song and dance!"

AMONG OUR BOOKS

LOUIS BAUM: The Constant Lover
"What a guy!" says each girl with a sigh
When she sees our Louis passing by.

MYRNA BARNETT: The Lively Lady
Quite a willing worker is she;
Therefore, a success she's bound to be.

JOAN BERTENTHAL: Innocent Merriment
Joan is happy; she's never blue;
She's a friend—sincere and true.

AGNES BRUUN: She Was a Phantom of Delight
To college, Agnes is definitely bound;
At Pitt for the next four years she'll be found.

GEORGE BLACKHALL: With a High Heart
George is our tall and handsome one,
With a twinkling eye and a yen for fun.

LEON CANTOR: Some Follow the Sea
For Uncle Sam's navy, Leon is bound;
He'll make as fine a sailor as can be found.

FRANK DUGAS: The Unintentional Charm of Men
Frank gains friends with his jolly smile;
His friendly ways make him quite worthwhile.

REGIS KING: The Beloved Vagabond
Regis is a fellow whom all enjoy meeting,
For his cheerful "Hello" is a most pleasant greeting.

CHRISTOPHER EVANS: Live, Love and Learn
Chris is a newcomer to our room;
His cheerful manner eradicates gloom.

FLORENCE LAZZOR: On Wings of Song
Flo is the girl with the beautiful voice;
Of all the singers she rates first choice.

HERBERT LEFF: They Loved to Laugh
A witty fellow with a ready pun,
With whom every one has had much fun.

ANN MATEY: The Business Girl
She gets work done in a quiet way;
The best things of her are easy to say.

IRENE McCONNELL: Friendship
Cheerful and bright is just what we mean
When we give a sketch of our Irene.

ANDREW MELZER: Men of Iron
In scholastic work, Andy's found at the top;
Towards achieving his goal, he'll never stop.

IRA FARGOTSTEIN: Strict Joy
Ira's the fellow, we all agree,
Whose sense of humor is keen as can be.

HILDA FEHL: Smarter and Smoother
Hilda is quiet, but she's intellectual;
In her work, she's most effectual.

MAUREEN HAID: She walks in Beauty
Maureen is the model of 454,
She's cute and sweet—the one we adore.

JOYCE HARSHBERGER: A Midsummer Night's Dream
To illustrate fashions is Joyce's ambition;
She's certain to succeed in this longed-for position.

WILLIAM HUGHES: You Are the Hope of the World
Bill is quiet; he's shy and nice;
He's one of the finest in Allderdice.

WALTER KEKLEWICH: All American
Walt was at his best in '46,
When his football tactics were full of tricks.

BRUCE KOSES: Bring Along Laughter
To Bruce, the class proposes this toast:
"Here's to a football player of whom we can boast."

JEANETTE O'SHELL: Friendship
Jeanette, a bookkeeper soon will be,
So happy-go-lucky and quite carefree.

LOIS ROTH: Lyric Laughter
Her smiling face and quiet ways
Win her loads and loads of praise.

PHILOMENA SANTORA: Let's Talk about You
Our Phil is an earnest, endearing young lass;
In any profession, she'll top the class.

KATHLEEN SCHLEMMER: Personality Plus
Tats is a Cheerleader for good old T.A.;
She's attractive and kindly—what more need we say?

JOHN SAINT-VINCENT: What Cheer
Our flashing redhead whom we can see,
With witty replies is as quick as can be.

EDWARD STEPHENS: It's Nice to Know People Like You
Eddy is a classmate just recently acquired
Whose friendly, easy manner is always admired.

MADELINE TUPI: To Have and to Hold
A most efficient secretary Madeline will make,
Whose work will be done without a mistake.

JACK WAIDA: Under a Lucky Star
Jack acquires friends day after day
With his comradely manner and pleasant way.

CAROL WILDS: The Pleasure of Your Company
Carol's desire is to hold a good position;
To be a secretary is her fondest ambition.

WILLIS SUPLER: Great Expectations
Willis is quite a superior student
Whose fairness and judgment are always prudent.

A right jolly boy is this JAMES EDWARD AMOS;
His humor in Room 457 is famous.

PAUL BOROSS is, oh, such a nice guy;
The girls take one look and heave quite a sigh.

ANN BRACKEN is truly the girl with a voice;
Our class agrees that she is the perfect choice.

GILBERT BRODY, with shoulders so very broad,
From all the girls, he surely gets the nod.

ANNABELLE BRUCE thought school quite nice;
But even she isn't willing to do it twice.

The sparkling charm of BOB CONRAD
Drives away gloom and anything sad.

NANCY CORMAN'S sweet disposition
Is a cure-all prescribed by any physician.

A real fine student is GENE COWIE;
But his game of chess is zing, zowie!

BOB DE MARTINO is always gay,
He's in jolly spirits every day.

DAN DOLSEY, so happy and gay,
Will be delighted on "No Mo Day."

There are not many girls as sweet as SUZZY DUNAY,
Who'll do anything for you, and without delay.

When MICHAEL ECONOMOS tries to make up his mind,
It's just like the weather, the unpredictable kind.

BARBARA EVANS likes to be fashionably late,
At church and school, but never for a date.

JAMES FREEMAN is a tried and true friend,
A relationship that we all will hate to end.

We give ROBERT GHEN a real citation
For having his own radio station.

BETTY GREEN is really quick to learn,
She must have made the midnight "coal-burn."

Everyone likes the friendship of JAMES KLEIN;
His manners in class have really been fine.

Faithfully heeding the latest fashion book,
SHIRLEY KLEIN has developed the real new look.

IRENE KOSTIK is a girl who is most beguiling,
That is because she is always found smiling.

JEANNE MARINO, our seamstress sublime,
Is very dependable and always on time.

If you feel like gazing into bright blue skies,
You might as well look into DONALD MILL'S eyes.

In ANN NICHOLAS we have a wonderful friend,
Whom we'll always remember when our school days end.

LARRY RAVICK made homeroom a joyful riot;
Ask him, there's no chance that he will deny it.

Now, in every homeroom class there's a beaut;
But we have the best, CATHIE SHOVEL'S so cute.

MONICA SIMONYAK a quiet, sweet lass,
Has been a grand member of our homeroom class.

ALBERTA SMITH has such charm and poise,
She's very good at enchanting the boys.

ELINOR SYNA if given a chance,
Will show what she knows of modern dance.

SUE TEIGER is a lovely girl with dark brown hair;
She never has a worry and never has a care.

ETHEL JEAN TATTON so little and sweet,
According to us she is hard to beat.

For BETTY TONDORA, such a gentle, shy maid,
Our heartiest friendship never will fade.

MARILYN WAGMAN whose attire is so neat
Will design costumes that will be complete.

MELVIN WAX so friendly and bright,
A wonderful pal and a teacher's delight.

JOHN YALCH does what etiquette advises to do;
He's quiet, and speaks when he's spoken to.

In our homeroom we have a gay blade,
The fame of TOM CROW will surely never fade.

Know Something, Do Something, Be Something

"Ralph Gross, Stuart Jameson, Alice Martin, . . . " Names and more names . . . hundreds of them, all of them important to only a few people besides their owners, but all with one thing in common. They had finished twelve years of school. Some had started in the same school in the first grade, with the same teachers and had progressed the entire twelve years together; but most met during the remaining two or three years. These were the highlight years, the ones freshest in memories, studded with good times and sad times, joyous spring days and dull, dreary, hard-working winter days . . . loves and heartaches, dances and parties, football games and cokes afterward—all of this is recalled now that it is over. The gay times seem just a little gayer, and the blue ones just a little sadder. The problems are now laughed at, and a touch of nostalgia creeps into remembrance of the laughing times at lunch and the evening gatherings.

Now the group, for the most part, will separate and go different ways. Some to school, some to work, and some to think it over a little longer. The boys worry over the future; the girls can afford to smile and wait and see what happens. For most, the road will be harder from here on. Each in his chosen field, be it steelmaking or painting, writing or selling, must start at the bottom. Some will compete for jobs with college graduates, but they too have had much the same opportunities. Many will go to work, and by sweat and tears try to rise to the top; and others, many, many others may never see the top. Some will marry; others will spend lonely lives. Some may utterly fail; others will be civic leaders. But all have profitted by the past twelve years, and all will continue to reap the glories of life as they recall the words, "KNOW SOMETHING, DO SOMETHING, BE SOMETHING."

" . . . we are builders . . . we are determined."

These strong phrases might well have been uttered by any Allderdice student. For we are determined to build both mind and body to the extent of their capacities. Such determination is witnessed in the spirited participation in the varied activities which our school offers.

The physical and the mental talent of every individual must coordinate. Well-balanced citizens are a necessity, not only during a crisis, but always. Democracy depends upon the people who function in it. It is such citizens that Allderdice aspires to produce.

" . . . we are builders:" builders of a new and strife-free world; builders of a fearless and constructive period; builders, tirelessly working toward ultimate good.

FIRST SEMESTER

Each pupil in school has some work he must do;
But we have two tasks to fulfill.
Each morning in class our school subjects pursue,
To real jobs we then turn with a will.

THELMA E. ADREON—leaves her ability on roller skates, but carries along her sincere appreciation of the retailing course.

RALPH EDWIN BARNETT—does not leave his hobby which is a certain person named "Butch," but he remembers the Marching Band as his favorite activity.

SIDNEY R. FINKELSTEIN—leaves his favorite subject, jewelry, to aspiring craftsmen; but he carries with him the desire to become a jeweler.

ERWIN MARKS—leaves his aversion for "silly girls," but will always remember the friendly students of Allderdice.

DOROTHY J. SOPOLIGA—leaves her place in Modern Dance to some zealous choreographer; but she will ever recall the friendly faces of her schoolmates.

In Loving Memory

of

Barbara Elaine Hart

A flower bloomed, and, summer yet,

it lost the bud it bore;

But still 'tis spring, where in our hearts,

the rose blooms ever more.

HISTORY WAS MADE HERE

In the Allderdice cafeteria—when they served turkey pie!
In the second floor annex—when somebody actually threw a candy wrapper in a rubbish can!
In the prom committee meeting—when they all agreed on a band!
At the ticket seller's machine—when they had 8c lunch checks marked "8c"!
At the Wall—when not a soul was smoking!
In typewriting class—when no one used an eraser all day!
In study hall—when everyone was studying!
In the swimming pool—when no one complained that the water was cold!
In English class—when Miss Riddle didn't assign an investigative theme!
On the first day of school—when an Allderdician gave a 7B the right directions!
In the 3rd floor annex—when not one little boy brought a water pistol to school!
In Mr. Colborn's Chemistry class—when everyone made an "A" on the math test.
In the locker room—when no one shoved anyone else out of his way!
In the Journal staff—when everyone got his assignments in on time!
At the smokestack—when Westinghouse painted it free of charge.
In the cafeteria—when the jukebox made music.
On the lawn—when it regained its natural beauty.
At Christmas time—when Allderdice had a Christmas tree in the cafeteria.
In the auditorium—where a new curtain and drapes were hung.
In the halls—when decorated containers appeared.
At the assembly—when a real movie actor spoke—Harold Russel, star of The Best Years of Our Lives.

Sportsmanship Leadership Ability

Chuck Ford, undoubtedly the most brilliant of this year's basketballers, holds second high scoring honors in the city. His amazing shooting ability made him the spark for the entire team. Chuck is a great sportsman and a fine competitor.

Ron Schmeiser, captain of the 1948 edition of Irwin's marauders, played cool, steady ball all season. Ron's fine ball handling and consistent scoring ability were the backbone of the team. He was a truly outstanding leader.

Irv Greenberg, left guard of the basketball team, was a key man in the 1948 campaign. His aggressive play combined with good defensive work made him an invaluable member of the starting five. Irv is a two year man.

John Brashear, the captain of this year's football squad, was its most prominent member. Both a great defensive and offensive player, he was a fine example to his teammates. John also throws the discus on the track team.

Arthur Markley, right guard of the football team, played top flight ball all season. His fighting, determined spirit was an inspiration to his mates. A three year man, Arch runs the 220 low hurdles for the track team.

Al Ginsburg, key member of the track team, has been an outstanding performer for three years. He was a city leader in the gruelling 440 yard run and is now a top man on the mile relay team.

Roy Lockhart, crack 220 yard dash man of the track squad, also excels in the broad jump and on the half mile relay team. A boy with tremendous speed and stamina, Roy ranks as one of the most brilliant performers on the squad.

Dan Dolsey, star of both the football and track teams, performed with equal ability on each squad. A great mile man, Dan's running served him well as he quarterbacked the football team all season. He is a two year man on both teams.
